H.R. 2157, the Supplemental Appropriations Act of 2019, provides $17.3 billion in assistance for several natural disasters in fiscal years 2017 through 2019.

The bill falls short:

- The bill fails to address the humanitarian and security crisis at the southern border.
- The bill exempts Puerto Rico’s cost share for FEMA programs and fails to provide oversight on federal funds.
- The bill fails to provide sufficient funds to repair military installations, including Offutt Air Force Base that was devastated by recent flooding.

The bill includes:

- Agriculture - $4.9 BILLION - This amount includes $3 billion for agricultural crop and commodity losses, $605 million for Puerto Rico’s Nutrition Assistance Program, $500 million for farmland rehabilitation, $480 million for forest restoration, $150 million for rural community facilities, and $125 million for watershed and flood prevention.

- Commerce, Justice, Science - $940 MILLION - This amount includes $600 million for infrastructure and economic recovery, $150 million for fishery disasters, and $146 million for National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration operations and procurement, including funds to repair facilities and improve weather forecasting.

- Defense, Military Construction, and Veterans Affairs - $1.5 BILLION - This amount includes $1.1 billion for the Air Force, $315 million for the Navy and Marine Corps, $42 million for the National Guard, and $3 million for Veterans.

- Energy and Water - $2.8 BILLION - This amount includes $2.77 billion for U.S. Army Corps of Engineers civil works projects, $17 million for repairs of Bureau of Reclamation projects, and $15.5 million for electric grid assistance.

- Homeland Security - $526 MILLION - The bill provides $526 million for operations and repairs of Coast Guard assets.

- Interior and Environment - $2.1 BILLION - This amount includes $915 million for clean water and drinking water infrastructure and environmental clean-up, $720 million for wildland fire suppression repayment, and $446 million for repairs and clean-up on public lands and insular areas.

- Labor, Health, and Education - $623 MILLION - The bill provides $623 million, for employment, mental health, social services, and education programs.

- Transportation and Housing - $3.9 BILLION - This amount includes $2.2 billion for the Community Development Block Grant and $1.7 billion for the Federal Highway Administration.
